BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Minutes of the Regular Meeting

DRAFT

May 24, 2018

Members Present: Diane Baker, John Beasley, Janet Freeman, Adam Ingersoll (via Skype), Carol Kirsch, Robin Paetzold, Jay Semel.

Members Absent: Kellee Forkenbrock, Monique Washington.

Staff Present: Todd Brown, Terri Byers, Maeve Clark, Heidi Kuchta, Kara Logsdan, Anne Mangano, Patty McCarthy, Elyse Miller, Brent Palmer, Jason Paulios, Angela Pilkington.

Guests Present: Jobeth Bradbury, of Bradbury Miller Associates, via Skype.

Call Meeting to Order. President Semel called the meeting to order at 5:00 pm.

Public Discussion. Terri Byers reminded the Board that Jason Paulios has been selected by library staff to serve on the search committee if the Board decides to add a staff member. Paulios read a statement about staff representation on the search committee and provided hard copy handouts. Paulios said it was unclear whether the Search Committee would include a voting staff member on the search committee.

Approval of Minutes.

The minutes of the April 26, 2018 Regular Meeting of the Library Board of Trustees were reviewed. A motion to approve the Regular Minutes was made by Freeman and seconded by Paetzold. Motion carried 7/0.

Items for Discussion/Action.

Skype session with Bradbury Miller Associates. Jobeth Bradbury, representing Bradbury Miller Associates (BMA), Skyped into the Board meeting. She outlined their customary process. There will be four site visits; the first is scheduled for July 12-13, 2018. They suggest a series of conversations, with the full Board, the search committee, and a series of staff focus groups that include management and general staff. Bradbury said they like to meet with as many people as possible, including community stakeholders, and perhaps the Friends Foundation Board. Basically, anyone we think it would be important for the consultants to connect with to get a sense for their aspirations for the community and the library and what people would like to see in a new director. Before the visit, they do an electronic survey, and send it to all board members and search committee members. They send a separate survey to all staff. They will craft a position announcement after they leave and then begin the recruiting process. During the first visit they will set the schedule for the actual search. Bradbury suggested a seven to eight-week recruiting period. After the application period closes, the consultants return and meet with the search committee. Typically there are seven to nine semifinalists from which three to four are selected as finalists to come to Iowa City. During the recruiting and advertising periods, Bradbury Miller does all the intake. Typically, candidates provide a cover letter and resume, and each candidate completes a questionnaire, as well as phone conversations with the consultants. BMA performs what they call "street reconnaissance," on each of the candidates by calling the state librarian or another local library director for a candidate they may not know. The goal is to vet applicants as much as possible so there are no surprises. The recruiting process is methodical and begins with the state of Iowa, where the job announcement is shared with all public library leadership in Iowa. Then recruitment moves to surrounding states and keeps building out so that by the time they are finished, it is a national search. Bradbury anticipates 25-30 candidates. She said Des Moines had 33 qualified candidates apply for their position. They recommend Skype instead of onsite interview during the semifinal candidate interview phase. All finalists are on-site for two days and the final interviews can be structured however we wish. Library and community tours are included at this time. Job offers are contingent on successful background investigation. Paetzold wanted clarification about focus groups. Bradbury recommends 10-15 persons before it gets unwieldy. Kirsch asked how long the meeting would be; Bradbury said 50 minutes with a ten-minute transition between meetings. She said refreshments are helpful. Semel asked what the makeup of other committees has been. Bradbury said there is tremendous pressure on the staff but many search committees include one or two staff members. They have worked with search committees that had only a designated committee, a whole Board search committee, and a couple with community stakeholders on the search committee. She said the number of people on the committee is important. Freeman cannot attend the first meeting and asked if there will be a record of what happens at the July meeting. Bradbury said during those two days, they take notes and provide a full report to share with committee members and the board. There will be two reports; the board survey and the notes of the meetings with staff. Bradbury suggested Freeman might be able to participate by phone.

Policy Review: 806: Meeting Room and Lobby Use. This is a regularly scheduled policy review. Logsden said the primary change to the policy alters the times the meeting rooms are available and is predicated on staff safety. Currently, when we close the building, the Librarian in Charge meets the Maintenance staff person downstairs and clears the Lobby. Paetzold is concerned about staff safety and asked when we extend beyond operating hours. Logsden said we do this most days of the week. Baker thought it was strange that we are open past library closing hours. Clark said people ask questions during a program and have discussion after the session. Beasley asked if there are cameras in the Lobby and if they need to be adjusted. Logsden said the cameras have been updated in the past couple of months so this has been addressed. Logsden has spoken with maintenance staff and they are comfortable with the process in the proposed policy. We try to balance building availability, safety, and availability of staff. Kirsch asked if the senior person typically stays 30 minutes later. Clark said no. Paetzold asked how often there is an assault. Clark said it is quite rare but it cannot be ignored. Paetzold wondered if our liability is increased. Kirsch asked when the restrooms are checked. A motion to approve the policy with the staff recommended changes was made by Freeman and seconded by Kirsch . Motion carried 7/0.

Accept work on project to remodel Computer Lab. This has been moved to the June agenda as there are still a couple of items on the punchlist.

Art Advisory Committee. A motion to appoint the recommended committee members to the Art Advisory Committee was made by Semel and seconded by Baker. Motion carried 7/0.

Website Reader's Advisory. Anne Mangano gave a brief overview of the new staff picks page. It launched on March 6. Staff wanted to make readers advisory more front and center and reduce the time it takes for staff to write blog posts and recommend books. Individual picks by staff members lets the public get to know us a bit better, particularly via the staff profile section. Going forward, we would like to spotlight community members on our lists and have a way for patrons to ask questions. Paetzold noted that the comments section is gone. Semel asked if we can check traffic to the website; we can.

Staff Reports.

Director's Report. Craig is doing well and is eager to get back to work.

Departmental Reports:

Adult Services. The Genealogy lock-in event benefited from the flexibility of the Digital Media Lab (DML). Many people are interested in the scanning equipment. The DML open house is scheduled for Saturday, June 2 from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm.

Community & Access Services. The Bookmobile is coming off its last shift of the spring schedule and will be out of service next week for maintenance and a reset. The summer schedule begins June 4. Extra staff will be sent out to help with Summer Reading Program sign-up and crowd control.

Development Office Report. This Sunday, the Eat out to Read fundraiser is at Red Pepper Grill. McCarthy said there was a fundraising event every single month this year. She also said that donations have gone well this year. The Friends Foundation Board is currently planning monthly events for next year. On June 26, Rock and Read will take place at the Mill, from 5:30 until 8:00 pm. More information will be forthcoming.

Volunteer Recognition Report. Logsden thanked everyone who came to the event. Eileen Robinson was Volunteer of the Year and she received a 1,500 hour award.

Spotlight on the Collection. No comments.

Miscellaneous. No comments.

President's Report. Semel praised Beasley's father for a great presentation. Beasley said his dad was touched by the turnout for the event.

Announcements from Members. Paetzold recommends the Great American Read, both a national campaign and an eight-part series on IPTV to select the most popular novel. There is a top 100 novel list and a synopsis is provided on the show. Mangano said we have a display highlighting the campaign. Two Iowa libraries will be highlighted. Beasley asked for the request by Paulios about staff membership on the Director Search Committee be an agenda item for the next meeting.

Committee Reports.

Foundation Members. No meeting.

Director Search Committee. A meeting will be set up, likely during the week of June 11, to establish focus groups for inclusion at the consultants' July visit.

Communications. None.

Disbursements.

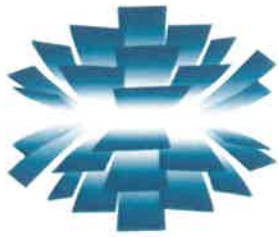

The MasterCard Expenditures for April, 2018 were reviewed. A motion to approve the disbursements for April, 2018 was made by Kirsch and seconded by Ingersoll. Motion carried 7/0.

Set Agenda Order for June Meeting.

Request for staff member on search committee.

Adjournment. A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Beasley and seconded by Freeman. Motion carried 7/0. President Semel closed the meeting at 6:13 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Elyse Miller

No information about a book ordered by the library about mangas/comics on the 2nd floor.

We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful public library in Iowa City. I love the atmosphere in the library, the extensive collection, the easy reserve/hold system online for circulation.

3/13/2018 9:28 AM

Please note: My use of your services looks skewed because I've only been in IC 6 months. I love the public library here!

3/13/2018 9:24 AM

The staff is friendly and very competent.

3/13/2018 9:22 AM

I would like there to be an option to pay a small fee in order to use the online collections

Collection X: My library has been very helpful. I have been a frequent user of the library and I have been very satisfied with the service.

The staff is friendly and very competent.

I would like there to be an option to pay a small fee in order to use the online collections (ebooks,etc.) Either by item or a yearly...For those of us that don't live in the area currently and are unable to access them.

I love being able to put books on hold from my home computer. Also, I appreciate the help I've had locating books from other libraries that ICPL does not have. ICPL is a fabulous library.

Love requesting books and coming to get it with the work of finding it in the stacks :)

Great library. Fantastic staff. The downtown location adds to the cohesiveness of IC.

The staff are very helpful and kind

Saturday 9-6 would be even better! :) <3

:) Thank you for staying free!

I love the friendly environment and staff as well as the available study space. Very satisfied!

Great library for the reasons above.

I have been harassed before opening while waiting, during the winter months only. Persons had disabilities and/or mental illness but I will not come at those hours again.

I am from small town IA and graduated from the UI. I find this library extremely impressive and am always amazed by the selection. If anything I would appreciate extended Library hours on weekends as I work 9-5 M-F.

Staff do not consistently enforce fees.

ICPL rocks!

I love Iowa City Pub. Library. Thank you for all the services you provide and being here!

Great library!

I love the app!

You are BAE

ICPL is a treasure we are lucky to have.

The internet express stations are wonderful. In regards to question, "What is your race?" patron responded: I am CAUCASID- At one time mint CAUCASID but it has become disconnected with science and embraced by ignorant racist to mean "I am but I love it here!

<3 the ICPL!

<3 <3 <3

Thank you for political books on both sides of the spectrum. Though we may be silent, there are conservatives here and we appreciate being able to read objectively about politics.

We love the ICPL and are grateful for the wonderful staff and resources.

It would be great if the Library could open at 9 AM on weekdays, or even 2-3 days/week.

Nope :)

Everytime people help.. me! I don't like people sleep in the Library Not Not Good!!

As a low income resident, I rely on ICPL for a huge part of my access to life, society, culture, and knowledge. My life would be seriously compromised if ICPL were not available to me.

Great job!!! Bus pass program awesome idea!!

I would enjoy seeing more audio books on compact disc b/c some patrons don't have access to a tablet or overdrive to download any of your collection of e-books or audios.

I'm here ALL the time, it has become my second home basically, I'm very grateful for everything you do! Thank you!

Library has spectacular inventory. Books, of course, but DVD's are unparalleled compared to other libraries. Staff members recommendations make it even more special. Tech help so very much appreciated. Staff, overall, very friendly and

To many bums taking up space

You're awesome!

Our son has aged out, but we truly appreciate the kids activities and the kids resources. Although I work downtown and use main ICPL, I'm happy and proud ya'll have a bookmobile serving our wider community. Thank you. Also, local news DB and

I'm glad I have ICPL privileges even though I live in the country!

You're the best!

Thanks for being there

My only complaint is that DVDs are so often damaged. I would love to be able to download and stream video to avoid that problem. Otherwise, we LOVE the library, especially the children's area, staff, and programs.

It's a great library!

It's great

Think this library and its staff are a great IC treasure

In your computer instruction program add someone who can assist with all iphone functions, you offer great desktop assistance, but only the most basic things for smart phones

Really impressed by your activities for kids, great books about every genre, online ebooks variety is great!

Love this library and its hard printed selections!

I love ILL, staff is excellent

Wonderful library, keep it up!

Love how organized and how much content is available

Should open at 8 am. Need sufficient parking, need more free parking

I absolutely love the recommended book displays on the 1st floor.

This is the best library in USA. Thanks a lot!

ICPL is a great place. I often use the space to study, because it's quiet, unlike the University Library. I liked the library do no discriminate people and let the homeless stay inside during the winter especially. I don't use the computers or other

Thank you for your hard work!

I love the mail reminders when books are due.

You always have a very friendly and helpful staff. Makes going to the library even more enjoyable.

I like the library and often come here with my child. Thank you for your kindness.

Not that/ Any I could print lol!

It is the best public library I have ever used!

Great facility!

Love our library!

Thanks

You guys are doing a great job. ICPL was my favorite place in Iowa City for the past five years. I am gonna miss this place so much when I move out this year.

We love our library!

Great books, great selection of movies too. Some books are new which is good.

Wonderful library! Your children's books in stock vs other metro libraries

I have heard of the Bookmobile but I don't know what its purpose is.

It's nice that I can use such excellent facilities even though I'm "out pf town"! (Johnson County though!)

I love this place!

great place!

I <3 the Library!

Thanks so much

Would be great if there was easier parking

I frequently come to use the tables on the second floor to study and write

The only problem I have is how much the library is frequented by bums and derelicts; they have become your "customers". It is my opinion that your "political correctness" prevents you from really getting down to the monumental job of actually

Thanks for all your help

Love if you bought a couple of Mac's. Love the library!

Be more consistent with sleeping policy, Steve the weatherman sleeping irks a lot of people for one instance

I also volunteer at the Bookend bookstore and live a block away from the library, here daily to check my email. love it. They get the latest books for me

This is an awesome library, multi-faceted resources. I've lived in many places so I can truly appreciate all this library offers- not many US libraries compare to this one!

No complaints, just wish there was more 20 minute parking on street. Don't care for the ramp. You do a great job in getting new books, CD's and movies!

Great library- one of main reasons I am trying to stay here after retirement

I just started to study English I want to borrow some books with easy English but I don't know where I can find the books. Please set up a book shelf for the new English learner if it is possible. Thanks you are very nice

More Brian Lumley

Excellent facility. One of the few things IC has done well.

I'd like a lot more nature videos, please.

I enjoy using the storytime kits. The bags are much better than the buckets :) Great for preschool teachers.

My family loves the ICPL. We get materials all the time and I come here to use study spaces frequently. I've been using audiobooks on overdrive a lot lately and sometimes struggle to find the audio book version of a book I am looking for ->

I love the ICPL! They always get books when I request! I wish the Book End had a catalog so I knew what they had in though.

This is an amazing library. Great collection and lots of new books, too. Staff are always cheerful, friendly, and helpful.

Love blind date with a book, would like more often!

ICPL is a great library- thank you for your services.

Thanks for so many options. Thank you for all you do.

Keep up the good work.

Thank you!!

I haven't kept up where the Bookmobile is so I can access it. I assume it moves around? (Duh) The meeting rooms are hard to book. Thanks!

I like the library I just forget to use it. I haven't needed to.

I LOVE OUR LIBRARY

No, the teen room is cool. :P

I have used the library a lot for many years, but recently I have used the university library more. A lack of time is what I have.

Nope :)

I don't like the LGBTQ friendly list up on the the sides of shelving in Children's Room- not necessary. As someone who values traditional marriage and family life, it would be great to see these books featured. Also very much disliked the LGBTQ window last June. Children ESP. should not feel pressured about this topic of "Gender Preference"- they are children. I love your inter-library loan service. Staff are helpful and nice. In regards to question "We have discussed changing our Saturday hours. Do you have a preference?" patron responded: So many people work until 5 and wouldn't be able to visit

Great job, ICPL.

Great job and services! Thanks for your virtuosic work! -Sharon Thomas

ICPL is GREAT!!!

Great programs! Thanks!

Wish you were open longer on Sat. & Sun.

Great experience with inter-library loan.

The library is a second home and I love it.

Love the writing and tech help sessions. In regards to question "If you haven't visited the bookmobile, why?" patron responded: Not up on it's schedule.

Fan and supporter of library. Think we senior tech helpers should be recognized as library volunteers

I am a student and come to the ICPL to study- it is my favorite place on campus because it is so peaceful and accommodating- thank you!

Yes I'd like to see the expansion of hours such as on Sunday's 11 am to 7 pm, and 9 am to open weekdays

I love the IC library, thanks!

Generally an outstanding public library (for a small city especially). It would help to have earlier hours and sometimes allow more computer time. Staff is excellent (imo)

Very much enjoy the library, great resource

I would like the library to open at 9 am, I love all the children's events in the morning

I prefer hours be changed 10-4

You are rocking, keep doing the good work. Heartfelt thanks!

The library staff and volunteers are helpful and friendly as all git-out. The DVD selection is phenomenal!

Great library and staff!

Thank you for all you do!

Wish there were more study rooms

Love the art check out!

Thank you for always providing amazing services and resources. I have been visiting the library ever since I moved to IC in the 3rd grade

I love ICPL, it is truly a great library

Love this place thx

Keep up the great work!

The ICPL is one of my favorite spots in town.

The Eastside Hy-Vee drop off is nice. DVD collection by genre instead of alphabetized is a little confusing. I like the online book renewal option. Always great staff!

They are very nice and helpful.

Thank you for all of the great services you offer for our community.

-I wish library was open on Sundays. -Bathrooms automatic flush usually don't work. -2nd Floor bathroom is usually dirty and smells bad! -I don't like that there is a max amount of renewals allowed for checked out books. -Coffee machine on 2nd floor

An excellent use of my tax monies.

The new books here are great!

The library is my favorite thing in this city.

Recently, I attempted to use a study room, but I was alone. I needed to attend an online conference call. I was not allowed to schedule the room since I was a single person, and was invited out when a group arrived. I would like a private room option. You need to get a better handle on adults and teens who either hang out at the library all, sleeping on couches, etc., or are way too noisy and disrespectful of staff and patrons.

Great library, very helpful staff. Good resources for the community.

I treasure the ICPL staff services, resources!

Love this place!

I think it's a great library and I have recently rented art work.

I checked out a book using inter-library loan and it worked very well.

y'all are great

Best pl in US

This is a wonderful place! Staff also are always helpful.

More children/toddler events in the afternoon/evenings so working parents and children can attend.

N/A I love the library. I use it very often.

My friends and I LOVE the Iowa City Public Library. The staff has always been kind and helpful. The collection of materials is absolutely wonderful. It's the greatest Library I have ever been in. It really serves its multimedia purpose.

Growing up I did not have library services so the ICPL is one of the greatest resources I've had access to. Thank you so much!

I love coming to the library to look for books for my classroom.

Love the Library!

Yes more time on computers then 2 hours. Better head phones, allow other in Teen Zone to play video games that aren't to old.

Overall, I am quite satisfied with ICPL collections and services!

I love the library. It is a great institution and essential to democracy.

Library employees/volunteers need to make a bigger effort to shut up loud patrons, keep them off cell phones, etc. It is so annoying to have to listen to others when you come here for quiet!!!

We greatly appreciate the children's services.

Kids love the library. One of the best I've seen!

I visit ICPL about twice per week. I love ICPL! I have lots of experience in data analysis, incl. survey. I volunteer data analysis of any user experience/visit information. Please contact me at rongchun@gmail.com

Fun computer classes for gen x, like the teen classes.

Best library! I have loved it all of my life. Stop weeding the Children's Collection please!!

Great resources- thanks!

We love the library!

Thank you!

Thank you!

In regards to question "What is your race" patron responded: human In regards to question "Are you Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino?" patron responded: Only God knows!

The best place to be in IC is ICPL. In regards to "What is your race", patron responded: We're all human race!!

It is very hard to park in front of the Library to drop books off. It seems like the short term parking is rarely enforced.

I love them!

Love the children's activities and resources for grandchildren. Love Book Down Loading, Helpful Staff, Tech Help!!!

Best library in the state!

good books

I do not think you should close for a full day in the fall for an in-service. An in-service should be limited to a half day of closing or it should be conducted during closed hours. Also, it would be nice to be able to check out express DVD's Friday and be

Thank you for purchasing materials on my behalf when not available at library or through ILL

I love how large and kid friendly the children's room is. The toys and kids computers are fabulous! Much more inviting and entertaining for kids than the kids area at the CVPL

This is a wonderful library with excellent holdings. Thank you!

I love my library. In Regards to "What is your race" patron wrote: that thing as a race doesn't exist, All we're humans. In Regards to "Are you Spanish, Hispanic, or Latino?" patron wrote: I found this question disrespectful

More dvds of premium tv series, update dvds and replace scratched ones.

I love the Library. The Bookmobile has been a great addition.

Library could use a water element- a nice fountain, perhaps, to center the body and calm the mind

I love being able to check out pieces of art. I use the ICPL mobile app and would love to see that expanded- would be nice to be able to put books on hold thru the app.

Love the art rental program. Please expand! (and the comic book selection

The ICPL is great! The ICPL staff are friendly, helpful and great! Thanks!

I love the library. It's one of my favorite places in Iowa City. Thank you!

I'm so grateful for the space and all the design elements and art & local interest in engagement with Iowa City! Also as a voting site!

This is one of the best libraries I've used! I miss it whenever I've moved away from IC

Keep up the great work! My family loves the library.

We are grateful for ICPL! The summer reading program is always great.

Great library! I love it!

I wish the community used the library more for community wide events. It's a place (location, convenience) that works well for such. The computers have poor acoustics.

Iowa City is so fortunate to have this incredible library. I'm a life long reader. My mother (now 90+ years old) volunteered at the "old" library as well as the NL library. I went with her to "old" library and got to do some volunteering myself at a young

Thank you :)

Love everything about ICPL, keep up the good work!

This is the best library in the world. When I am feeling down, this is where I come to feel better.

Or hours could change 9-6. Every staff member I have encountered is helpful, informed, and friendly.

Love this Library!

Please don't change the Saturday hours, when I work weekends I can't always come earlier and I can't always change my weekly schedule to come in earlier in the week. If you do change them could you put a policy in place that as long as the I absolutely love the ICPL- really the only improvement I can think of is having a coffee/tea/hot cocoa dispenser, but I don't know how realistic that is :)

Keep up the good work!

Earlier Sunday hours would be great! Overall very excellent!

I like the book selection.

It smells bad.

I think that libraries should be open 24/7, just like Hy-Vee!

More Manga please! (Black Butler please)

Weekdays starting at 9 AM. Can you print from your own computer? Love the free shelf. Love the hold service (but too many at once).

First time here, already enjoying! <3

I'd like to see weekday hours open at 9 AM. Later remote drop of pick-up time, later in the day than 1pm. Winter Reading Program for adults would be nice.

The library is a huge asset to Iowa City.

Great Service!

I'm living in Coralville. It is sometimes difficult to access to ICPL. Coralville-Iowa City- North Liberty libraries need to have one network since these 3 libraries are nearby. It may cost but will give much more satisfaction to citizens. The electronic card catalog does not seem very intuitive overall, however, the ICPL is fabulous and I feel fortunate to have it. Thanks for all you do!

Thank you for all you do for the community!

I wish you opened earlier every day!

Love Book Babies!

The website is pretty good but what if you could browse all checked in movies on one page, maybe sort by genre.

My library card always seems to expire when I'm out of town.

I'm sorry I always return things late. I'll do better. Thank you!

Answered question "If you haven't visited the bookmobile, why" with the answer of "Prefer Antelope"

I really enjoy Digital Johnson County and would appreciate a broader, more current catalog.

I love the book club kits; my club uses them a couple times a year.

The library is AMAZING!! We are so lucky to have a wonderful, clean place to visit in IA City! Staff is awesome!

Thank you! :)

I have not used the bookmobile, but retirees I work with love it!

Great Service!

The Library is a HUGE asset to Iowa City.

Kids storytime- Please do not show movies or something on a screen. Kids have a lot of screen time already. Make it interactive with songs, books.

Great children services! Thanks for offering so many things for the kids! :)

Love family/toddler activities! Thank you!

I would strongly encourage earlier hours on Sunday. I feel like many businesses open later due to church and that seems odd. I would love to bring my family at 10 AM.

Great, helpful knowledgeable staff. Good resources, all "electronic" needs of mine are supplied here- that is good.

Would love to have weekday hours starting at 9:00.

One of the better public libraries of anywhere I've lived. I enjoy highlighted staff picks for books/movies. Would be cool to extend that to documentaries/audiobooks.

I love volunteering here!

I haven't come across the Bookmobile yet and don't know where the stops are.

Love this place! Feel lucky to have it!

I love my library! I like the new Bookmobile, very convenient for areas other than downtown.

I love our library!

I love the Lib!

I especially value: 1) That books will be ordered at a suggestion if they fit ICPL collection. 2) BYOB Program 3) Frozen holds (although new website is harder for me to navigate)

The Library is for everyone so why ask, "What is your age group?"

Do keep up your super services! Robert Stein Author/Novels

Earlier hours Sunday AM for kids would be great!

More kids, family programming variety at Saturday Storytime please.

A big thanks!

It is so convenient to reserve books from home and then quickly pop into the library to pick them up from the "hold" shelf! Thank you for that service. The "freeze" feature on held books is very nice so that all the reserved books are not available at once! If I remember right, books can now be renewed twice - nice service! Remote book drops are very convenient. Thank you for your work!

No - great job

Continue your great service. Thank You!

nope. You're great!

I would like a filter for children when they are looking for books online. There are books on the home page that are for adult eyes only--even then I question the content for adults. I will not let my child get on your web-site or view books because of I cannot tell you how much I LOVE the book mobile! I love that you are at the health sciences campus on Tuesdays at lunch. Going out there during a stressful day in the hospital makes my whole week a little better! I also visit frequently at the Love ICPL!

I will say that often my son and I choose to go to the Coralville Library if we are just making a visit for books together because of parking. Parking ramps make him anxious.

Wonderfully helpful staff! Appreciate the willingness to purchase items I suggest. Beautiful building. Involvement in community.

I'm one of the directors of The Writers' Rooms. We use your facilities to meet up on Tuesdays with the Rainbow Room and the Violet Realm. We love meeting at the library and are thrilled with the space!

wonderful oasis! Nearly always have what I'm looking for and if not interlibrary loan is very good.

Regarding online renewals of checked out materials, I've always wondered why, after selecting the books I want to renew, I'm asked to confirm that I want to renew the selected books. It seems like an unnecessary step. The Coralville library system I love them.

I think we have one of the best public libraries in the country. Thank you for being awesome.

More services in Spanish

I wish you would open at 10 AM on Sundays.

I love the ICPL. I volunteer there weekly and check out books at least bi-weekly. I feel we are very fortunate to have the wonderful library we have.

Question #2, about the bookmobile, did not have the option I would have answered. I have heard of the bookmobile but don't know when or where it goes.

valuable to our community

When using HeritageQuest from home with my ICPL logon, HQ will always display the search results I seek, but will no longer display the actual source records (census pages, etc.). I dealt with this issue once before, maybe a year or two ago, with the

Love it

I love the downtown ICPL! Not just for books, but for the meeting rooms, the public events, the study carrels upstairs, the bulletin boards in the lobby, the water bottle filling station, the location on the ped mall. Such a wonderful resource for Iowa

The up-to-date collections of new fiction and non-fiction are terrific!

parking is tricky, so I usually do everything digital now

More adult programs that incorporate all ages. Younger, and couples.

I'm surprised that the change in hours would be on the weekend. If anything, I'd prefer an earlier opening time Monday-Friday. A later opening on the weekend seems to make sense.

More eaudiobooks!!!

There is a lot of variability of helpfulness of staff at the front desk. Sometimes I get happy helpful staff, but other days I get staff who don't seem to want to help at all.

I prefer Saturday hours to be 9-6 or 8 o'clock like Friday evenings. It seems that later hours could provide additional activity options for families and teens. I would always prefer more open hours at the library. I recognize that this is a cost and that it Love the Book Mobile and retrieving holds from it and having main library materials delivered through it. Always interested in extended weekend hours.

I appreciate your online sources for genealogy; thoroughly enjoyed attending your lectures during the recent archives crawl; "pretty good" selection of ebooks from Overdrive - appears highly used judging by wait times for some of the digital books;

Love it, keep up the good work!

I love your Instagram posts - this is mainly how I hear what's happening at the library. I have always been happy with the selection of books and media. Maybe promote adult library programs a bit more? I tend to not find out about them. Your collection of audio books is wonderful and I'm glad to see it continue to expand. I've used that service from the days of cassette tapes.

You have great materials and a great staff

Again, find a better catalog

I love the library and am glad you offer the services I don't utilize (Facebook, computers, meeting rooms, et al.) because I know many other patrons do. ICPL is one of the most important institutions that makes living in Iowa City so satisfying.

Too many multiple copies of briefly "popular" books - not enough copies of important books

I think it's a great community resource overall, thanks!

Keep up the great work!

LOVE my public library with sugar on top!

Love our library - it's the best. Thanks for all you do for your patrons.

Book mobile weekend stops would be nice. And later stops during the week. Hard to get there on time when working out of town, but going downtown is inconvenient because good parking is scarce.

yes love it . but i hate arguing with the soap and water in the bathroom. i would prefer the kind you turn on

The library is fabulous! I'm thankful for it.

I always find the library staff helpful when I have a question about a book or library usage. I particularly like the ability to suggest books for purchase. Many times the staff already has made the purchase and need only request a hold for the book.

Good library. Keep it up!

easier parking for in and out (5-10 min visits). not enough spaces.

Everyone there does a terrific job. I am so grateful and happy to have such a wonderful library in our city. I brag about it all the time. Thank you!

My wife and I are constant users of your book and dvd selections and are so very grateful to know libraries exist and Iowa City has a FINE one. And to think, it's a socialistic endeavor. Great staff! Thanks, Folks :)

Your audiobook library has opened up a whole new world for me. I can't thank the ICPL enough!

get a better snack bar- Coralville is killing you on this there are more people in the entry area who are intimidating sometimes; yelling or acting out and I leave. once I called the police because it seemed the right thing to do. Thank you for giving this option to let you know.

The chairs at the computers are not clean. I wish they were of a material that could be regularly wiped clean. I come to the library in good clothes and hesitate to sit down on them. many have stains and are dusty and dirty-looking.

You all ROCK!!!

I love the library, my only comment is that I would enjoy a wider selection of fantasy and sci-fi audio books. I use the Libby Library app to access and borrow audio books from this library and I love it.

Facility-wise, somewhat ICPL smells bad. I hope you guys do some deodorizing treatment periodically.

I would like to see library open at 9:00 am most if not every day as I am out and around early in the day. I also see many people waiting before it is open most days that I am in the area.

I love the ICPL so very much.

ICPL is a true asset to our community. Thanks for all your hard work!

I don't understand why the library does not open before businesses downtown. 9-5 on Saturday would be great! But what about the rest of the week?

In general, I am very happy with the ICPL and utilize its resources quite often.

We love the library! It's a fantastic asset to the Iowa City community!

The Library's services are critical to our area's success.

broader book collection, open for more hours on weekends

The Children's Room is AMAZING! Staff members are super friendly and organize great events (Sunday Fundays, Scavenger Hunt, etc.). Availability of new books is great! My son loves to come spend hours here!

When using the website, it is cumbersome to add a book to a list. First, you must add it to a cart, then you have to add it from the cart to a list. I really like the Iowa City Library!

Maybe just one--I've been upset w/ the Univ. of Iowa for narrowing access to the internet for the general public (paid for w/ our taxes); and w/ ICPL for giving out study rooms to college students (who have lots of other places to go), especially during finals when they fill the rooms. Thanks for considering the ICPL issue.

N/A - keep up the good work

I once asked for a book via interlibrary loan and didn't hear back. It would be great if patrons could be contacted to let them know if/when an interlibrary loan will be available (or if ICPL plans to acquire the material).

Making Facebook events for library events would be helpful in reminding me about upcoming events!

You guys are doing a great job!

Too many people sleeping/loitering/talking loudly/cell phones...

I love the library space and library services. I love the ability to put a book that's checked in on hold so I can pick it up quickly!

a great library. good job to all. say hi to heidi

We greatly enjoy toddler and preschool storytime! It's also really nice that the library provides inter-library loans and pulls holds out for me. It's much easier for me to get library books on hold than to track them down with 4 little kids with me. I love bringing my grandchildren to the children's area. They are from Missouri and do not have the extensive resources like ICPL. My daughter checks out a giant stack of books, my son-in-law always finds CDs, and the kids love the little house and Sometimes hard to find CDs in CD section, organization could be a bit more straightforward.

ICPL is special location that I love to stop into any time I'm downtown. You have the most extensive comics collections I've seen and I love grabbing a new movie when I'm checking out.

The interior could be updated to look more modern and fresh.

Catalog results are often confusing.

Johnson County Health and Human Services Building
855 S. Dubuque Street, Iowa City
Room 203, 2nd Floor

Each year, the Johnson County Board of Supervisors allocates funding to more than three dozen community partners, including social services organizations, libraries, and economic development groups.

Through various grant and fund allocation precesses, the Board has invested more than $3.3 million in community partners for Fiscal Year 2019.

Today's event is an opportunity for the Board of Supervisors to recognize and thank the community organizations that receive county funds, highlight the ways in which these organizations' efforts impact the communities they serve, and for the public to understand the Board's investment in quality of life for Johnson County residents.

The Johnson County Board of Supervisors thanks the staff, volunteers, and boards of directors of all the recipient organizations, and invites the community to celebrate the impact these organizations have on the people of Johnson County.

Children's Services Report

Prepared for the Iowa City Public Library Board of Trustees, June 2018 meeting

By Angie Pilkington, Children's Services Coordinator

May and June have been busy months for our department. We kicked May off by visiting local schools to promote the Summer Reading Program. You can check out our fun video at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wz16NAEv-Ck>. We also had our 2nd STEAM Festival the first week in May. It was not as heavily attended as it was last year, but we received many compliments from teachers and families as they attended the two-day festival. Each child who attended received a book generously donated by the HAVlife of Johnson County Foundation.

Summer Reading

Summer Reading has officially started! We are off to a great start with more than 2,200 kids and 275 babies signed up in the first two weeks. Our first official kick off to summer was ABC Saturday. It was a beautiful day out and over 700 children and their families came out to enjoy a show on the family stage or to stop at one of the many booths we had coordinated on Clinton Street.

Our first week of in-the-library shows were very well received. We had about 700 kids attend 3 different shows! Again this year to help accommodate the camps who bring in large numbers of campers and those trying to beat the heat, we have programs at 1 pm every weekday for them to attend. Movie Mondays, Game-on Tuesdays, World Wednesdays, Special Thursday programs and Try-It-Out-Fridays. In addition, we have Tweens on Tuesdays and storytimes every day at 10:30. If you ever hear someone say they are bored, send them over to the Children's Room!

After having a conversation with the Iowa City Autism Community Group, we selected 12 of our programs to offer a second time as a Special Access Program. This gives individuals with autism or other neurodiversity an opportunity to attend our popular programs in a smaller, quieter setting. The group has been ecstatic over our willingness to do this and have helped to make sure the events are well attended. The Iowa City Public Library was also named as an Autism-Friendly Business by the Autism Society of Iowa in May.

I want to thank Patty and the Friends Foundation for their hard work and financial contributions for all of our summer programs, prize books, and grand prizes for the Summer Reading Program. We have fabulous prizes to reward the children from these great sponsors: Pizza Ranch, Aspen Leaf, Iowa Children's Museum, Blank Park Zoo, McDonalds, Chili's and Texas Roadhouse. Without their donations, our program would not be as successful as it is! Thank you!!

Congratulations to the Iowa City Public Library for being recognized as an Autism Friendly Business! The Iowa City Public Library offers autism-accessible browsing hours in partnership with the Iowa City Autism Community. During this time, the library is closed to the general public giving individuals with autism and their families an opportunity to explore the library in a calm, low-key environment. Thank you, Iowa City Public Library, for your support of Iowa families affected by autism!

Preserving the Westgate Collection of Original Children's Book Art for the Next Generation

The Westgate Collection of Original Children's Book Art was donated by nationally known authors and illustrators of children's books, most of which was collected by long-time children's librarian Hazel Westgate. These pieces are hung throughout the Ellen Buchanan Children's Room of the Iowa City Public Library. Most of the works are original working drawings which bear printer's indications for use in the production of the book or are illustrations done by the artist specifically for the Library.

Hazel Westgate began working at the Iowa City Public Library in the children's department in 1949, serving the community for almost forty years. Westgate began collecting original art for the Library in 1964, soliciting about 28 pieces to adorn the walls of a new story hour room. Westgate's contributions to the Library and the children of Iowa City far extend beyond the collection of original children's book art. During her tenure she increased the number of story hours, provided video programming, and developed outreach programming, bringing storytime to city parks and daycare centers. She was an expert in children's literature and shared her love of stories with others. She was skilled in matching a reader to their book, but she also believed libraries were a place of imagination and play. Lolly Eggers, former ICPL director and author of A Century of Stories: the history of the Iowa City Public Library, 1896-1997, wrote "Hazel's philosophy that children should be treated like real people—people who will learn faster and more willingly in an informal, comfortable welcoming place—has been the modus operandi in the Library's children's room." She passed away in 1988.

Containing 59 pieces of art, the Westgate Collection includes illustrations from internationally celebrated children's illustrators such as Dr. Seuss, Ezra Jack Keats, Taro Yashima, Charles Schultz, Marcia Brown, and Margaret and H.A. Rey. Works from renowned illustrators with a connection to the Iowa City area, including Cynthia Jabar, Claudia McGehee, Ellie Simmons, and Will Thomson, are also included. Some of the works include texture, three-dimensional elements, and transparency sheets in their creation, while others include inscriptions to the Iowa City Public Library and Hazel Westgate.

After fifty-four years, many items in the collection need simple changes to the frame kit to ensure preservation. We are working with Blick Art Materials to replace all glass with conservation quality, anti-reflective plexi-glass to reduce fading, change the matting and backing to archival versions, and reframe any pieces when needed. One of the pieces in the Westgate Collection, a painting of Petunia the Goose by Roger Duvoisin needed conservation work. The illustration is a variation of the front and back cover art used for Duvoisin's Petunia, published in 1950. As tempera on paper, the paint was flaking off. Hopefully our efforts will make this collection available for the next fifty years.

We will celebrate the collection's return to the Children's Room at the Downtown District's October Gallery Walk on October 5th! A digital exhibit will also be available on our website.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY REPORT TO LIBRARY BOARD (June, 2018)

Brent Palmer, IT Coordinator

Summertime demand for tech is high

During the summer, between summer camps, festivals, and families looking for cool relief, there are a lot more young people in the building. These days, that means an almost insatiable demand for access to screen time. The children's room typically reduces the session time for its devices from an hour to 30 minutes. They expand access to popular programs like Minecraft. We have also added a few more options this summer but the competition leads to arguments and we also have children now seeking screen time in the adult and teen areas. Still we try to balance access to devices which many parents try to limit with initiatives that encourage exploration and reading like the Summer Reading Program.

Children's Tech Changes

We have made a few improvements to the children's room technology. For circulating iPads, we are trying out a new management tool to make updating the devices and the apps on them easier. We have added two new internet stations the summer time. The four "AWE" early learning stations were replaced in spring and there are new apps on the iPad and on the touch table.

Teen Center Changes

Since last summer, the Teen Center has acquired three new laptops and a new "Switch" video game system. We are trying out a Virtual Reality headset for video games to see how it will work. Also, we realized that iPads don't work well in the Teen Center; they have been removed.

PCI Compliance

Last year, based on direction from the Board of Trustees, ICPL spent considerable effort on projects related to privacy and confidentiality. Next fiscal year, we will concentrate on PCI compliance. Much of this will be documenting what we do to conform to the PCI compliance requirements for the type of credit card transactions that we accept. There are also some security enhancements that need to be put into place.

Youth Technology Breakdown

July Sidewalk Days Book Sale

Mark your calendars for July 21 for the next "name your price" book sale hosted by the Book End Committee of the Library Friends Foundation. New books, old books, special books, children's, fiction, and non-fiction—you name it, it will be available to buy on Saturday, July 21, 10 a.m.-3 p.m. in the library meeting rooms.

And volunteers will also sell books outside of the Library in the special Pop-Up store which is pictured here on the pedestrian mall. The sale occurs during the annual Sidewalk Days sponsored by the Iowa City Downtown District.

Friends Foundation FY2019 Meeting Schedule

The following priorities were set by the ICPL Friends Foundation Board of Directors to guide their work through 2020:

- Goal One: To generate necessary private support for the library to accomplish its five-year goals.
- Goal Two: The ICPL Friends Foundation Board is fully engaged.

To help achieve Goal Two, the number of board meetings was reduced from six to four annually to give members more time for work in committees. After trying that schedule for a couple of years, it has not been as effective as hoped so the Board will return to six meetings in Fiscal Year 2019. The meetings will coincide better with the Friends Foundation special events calendar and are scheduled on these Wednesdays at 4pm at the Library:

- July 18, 2018
- August 29, 2018
- November 14, 2018
- January 30, 2019
- March 13, 2019
- June 5, 2019

June is the American Library Association's GLBT Book Month. The Iowa City Public Library librarians are honoring LGBTQ literature with books for Pride Month. Here are some of our favorite selections for all age groups, to read and celebrate this Pride Month.

Children's Books

"This Day In June," by Gayle E. Pitman is a picture book illustrating a Pride parade. The end matter serves as a primer on LGBT history and culture and explains the references made in the story.

"Prince & Knight," by Daniel Haack tells the story of a prince and a knight-in-shining-armor who find true love in each other's embrace after fighting a dragon together

"I Am Jazz," by Jessica Herthel and Jazz Jennings, is the story of a transgender child who traces her early awareness that she is a girl in spite of male anatomy, and the acceptance she finds through a wise doctor who explains her natural transgender status.

"Star-Crossed," by Barbara Dee tells the story of Mattie, who is cast as Romeo in an eighth-grade play. Mattie is confused to find herself increasingly attracted to Gemma, a new classmate who is playing Juliet.

Books for Teens

"We Are Okay," by Nina LaCour is a graphic novel about Marin and her friend Mabel. After leaving her life behind to go to college in New York, Marin must face the truth about the tragedy that happened in the final weeks of summer when Mabel comes to visit.

"Carry On," by Rainbow Rowell is a ghost story, a love story, and a mystery. It has just as much kissing and talking as you'd expect from a Rainbow Rowell story – but far more monsters.

"History Is All You Left Me," by Adam Silvera tells the story of Griffin, who lost his ex-boyfriend, Theo, in a terrible accident. Griffin is piecing his life together in the aftermath, on top of his OCD.

Books for Adults

"Stray City," by Chelsey Johnson is in the queer underground of late 90s Portland. This book explores the complications of belonging – to a city, a culture, and a family – and what happens when those forms can't quite contain who you really are.

"This is How It Always Is," by Laurie Frankel is a novel about revelations, transformations, fairy tales, and family. And it's about the ways this is how it always is: change is always hard and miraculous and hard again. Parenting is always a leap into the unknown with crossed fingers and full hearts. Children grow but not always according to plan. And families with secrets don't get to keep them forever.

"David Bowie Made Me Gay: 100 Years of LGBT Music," by Darryl W. Bullock covers the history of recorded music by and for the LGBT community, and shows how those records influenced the evolution of the music we listen to today.

Look for these books at the Library – and don't forget to watch the Library's Book Cart Drill Team in the Pride Fest Parade on June 16 in downtown Iowa City.

Do you want to use the Iowa City Public Library but don't want to deal with the Ped Mall construction? There are apps for that!

The City of Iowa City will complete Phase 1 of their Ped Mall Improvement Project in the fall of 2018, but you don't have to wait till then to access the Library's collections while avoiding construction. We have so many options to entertain your brain from home. All you need is an internet connection, your library card, and password.

The video streaming service called Kanopy is the newest addition to ICPL's suite of digital offerings. Kanopy offers great indie films, documentaries, and -- a staff favorite -- the Criterion Collection. Each library card holder gets 8 play credits per month, and the app is available for multiple devices: iPhones, iPads, Apple TVs, Android phones and tablets, Amazon Fire tablets, Google Chromecast and Roku devices. Get started at icpl.kanopy.com.

Another new offering is digital access to NYTimes.com. ICPL provides a free access code that provides 72 hours of unlimited reading while you are logged in to your personal NYTimes.com account. Never hit a paywall again! This access pass even works on the NYTimes app for smartphones. Find the code at icpl.org/nytimes.

My personal favorite app lets me listen to a book while I get things done. Libby calls itself the "one-tap reading app" and is very intuitive to use. In 2017 alone, I read nearly 70 books through the Libby app. Cooking, cleaning, working out -- none of that stopped me from finishing my book. In fact, all those chores gave me a good excuse to put my book on. (A glass of wine helps with cooking, too.) Find everything available for Libby at icpl.overdrive.com.

Summer is perfect for porch sitting and lazing away. For that I like the RBDigital magazine app. The library subscribes to more than 150 digital magazines on all sorts of subjects -- lifestyle, sports, home improvement and more. The New Yorker and The Economist are two of our most popular magazines. The RBDigital app is available for Apple, Android, and Kindle Fire devices, or read straight from a computer. Find the full collection at icpl.org/magazines.

Like getting help with research questions or reading recommendations from staff? That's online, too. You can ask us anything at icpl.org/ask. Whether it is local history research, house history research, or whatever else Google is failing you, send us a chat or email to see if we can help at icpl.org/ask.

The Library has also recently launched a new space on the website where you can go to see reading recommendations from the experts. Our Staff Picks page was redesigned so you could see all the excellent books, movies, and music staff is highlighting for your entertainment pleasure. When you just can't decide what to check out next, see what the experts recommend at icpl.org/picks.

If you're having trouble getting started with these apps, call the Iowa City Public Library at 356-5200. Happy app-ing!

Through My Eyes screening

Iowa City Public Library — Saturday, June 23 at 3 p.m.

"Through My Eyes" creator Sujit Singh-Photo — photo by Jason Smith

In 2017, Sujit Singh had an idea. He thought of it as his chance to create something that would start a conversation on disability. Singh envisioned a piece that would help people see a disabled individual not for their disability, but as a person first.

With help from the community, his idea has blossomed into a piece titled Through My Eyes, a "disability simulation" documentary that will be premiering at the Iowa City Public Library on June 23 at 3 p.m.

Singh, who has cerebral palsy and epilepsy, has used his experience as the driving force behind his film.

"Throughout my life, I have experienced everything from sympathetic looks, to people telling me they know how it feels, to being bullied because I was different," Singh said.

In Through My Eyes, four able-bodied participants volunteered to experience what it is like to be a person with a disability. Participants were paired with a disabled individual and were asked to spend the day dealing with the challenges that those with that particular disability may face. Through My Eyes focuses on a person who is blind, a person who has had a traumatic brain injury, a person with a form of mutism and a person who is a quadriplegic.

Each able-bodied participant was interviewed before the simulation to get an idea of what they thought the obstacles may be for their chosen disability. Participants were then interviewed following the experience to see if their preconceived notions had changed. Participants ranged from two current students at the University of Iowa, a state representative and the current ADA coordinator for the City of Iowa City.

"My ultimate wish for this documentary, other than starting the conversation on disability is to have the community recognize that persons with disabilities are capable of doing everything that an able-bodied individual can do," Singh said. "Their disability doesn't define them, but it makes them the person that they are."

Singh is a University of Iowa alumnus, a production specialist at Public Access Television in Iowa City and an advocate for individuals with disabilities.

Public Access Television not only helped provide the equipment used to create the documentary, they are also a sponsor of the project.

Admission to the Saturday, June 23 screening at the Iowa City Public Library will be free and open to the public.

Iowa libraries take action for Puerto Rico

Local libraries have paired with a library in Puerto Rico to provide relief from September's hurricanes.

In an initiative that is close to the hearts of many, Iowa libraries are stepping up to help a community in need.

After Hurricanes Irma and Maria passed through Puerto Rico in September 2017, the island's recovery is taking longer than officials had hoped.

Libraries in Johnson and Linn Counties decided to help as much as they could, knowing how it feels to be in the midst of a disaster.

In 2008, the Iowa and Cedar Rivers flooded, damaging some area libraries, including the Cedar Rapids Public Library and the University of Iowa Main Library and causing the communities to temporarily lose integral institutions.

With this in mind, the area libraries, including in Iowa City, Coralville, and North Liberty, matched with the Francisco Oller Library in Puerto Rico to lend assistance. The action came through an initiative by the American Library Association called Libraries for Puerto Rico, which pairs libraries around the nation with Puerto Rican libraries to raise money to help rebuild them.

The Oller Library is an academic library that is a part of La Escuela de Artes y Diseño de Puerto Rico, the only institution in the territory offering a Bachelor of Fine Arts.

Libraries have been a part of many communities offering free services and keeping their doors open to all.

"We feel bad about it and had to find a tangible way to help," said Kara Logsdon, the Iowa City Public Library community access services coordinator.

The Iowa Library Association received monetary donations to reach its goal of $15,000 to give to the Puerto Rican library. The Oller has suffered losses of collections because of mold, lack of electricity and air conditioning, infrastructure damage, and much more.

In March, the library began offering its basic services again. The job is not done yet, but officials there hope to be fully operational within the next year. The storm has decreased attendance to library as well with its being shut down.

Many have shown their local support of the initiative.

Jennie Garner, the director at North Liberty Public Library, said, "Patrons come in and said they'd heard about it and were so excited to donate."

The Iowa Library Association has taken many avenues to promote the project, including radio talk shows and posting around the community.

Ellen Alexander, an assistant director at the Coralville Public Library, said, "We do whatever we can do, because libraries are so important to communities' access to resources. Some you can't find anywhere else."

The Iowa City Public Library hopes the funding will not only help to rebuild the libraries' collections, it will also restore the necessary components required to keep the library operating.

Area libraries will accept monetary donations in the form of cash or a check at their front desks through the end of the month.

Johnson County libraries raising money for Puerto Rico

Funds to buy videos, books for library at art school after hurricanes

Agenda Item 5E-5

IOWA CITY — As the 10th anniversary of the 2008 flood nears, Johnson County public libraries are embarking on a mission to help other libraries suffering from a different type of natural disaster — hurricanes Irma and Maria.

Through the month of June, Public Libraries of Johnson County will raise money to replace books, videos and other materials damaged by the storms.

Member libraries, including those in Iowa City, Coralville and North Liberty, will have collection boxes for the fund, according to a release from Iowa City.

"It's just heartbreaking," said Patty McCarthy, director of development at the Iowa City Public Library. "We, having gone through the flood, certainly know what happens and what books look like after they've been through lots of water."

The effort is apart of the Adopt a Library program from the American Library Association and REFORMA, the National Association to Promote Library and Information Services to Latinos and Spanish Speakers. The program paired the Iowa Library Association with Francisco Oller Library in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Statewide, the goal is to raise $15,000, McCarthy said.

The Francisco Oller Library is on the campus of Escuela de Artes y Diseño de Puerto Rico, or EAPD, which had about $2 million in damage. It's the only school in Puerto Rico that offers a bachelor of fine arts degree in majors such as art education, painting and digital art and design, according to the release.

"Libraries in communities can become the place where you go to sign up for help from FEMA or be able to use the internet to be able to tell your family that you're OK," McCarthy said. "Everybody benefits when you have a strong library."

Donations of cash or checks to the Iowa Library Association may be dropped in the donation box. Libraries in Coralville, Iowa City, North Liberty, Oxford, Solon, Springmier and Swisher are participating, according to the release.

#CorridorReads: Libraries join together to share summer reads

Agenda Item 5E-6

Partnership is a first across Linn, Johnson county libraries

People across the Corridor are deep in fantasy trilogies, reading "Frankenstein," listening to fiction audiobooks and paging through a cookbook based on the TV show "Gilmore Girls."

That's according to a new social media hashtag — #CorridorReads — that libraries in Linn and Johnson counties began promoting last week.

The campaign is the first time libraries across both counties have developed programming together, said Amber Mussman, Cedar Rapids Public Library community relations manager.

"We've never really had much of an opportunity to do things across the Corridor. This is a great first attempt at that," Mussman said. " ... Even University of Iowa libraries has been joining in on the fun. We wanted it to be as open to everyone as possible."

Participating libraries are encouraging people in the community to post online photos of their favorite reads, their summer book lists or literary events they attend.

"We know that libraries across the Corridor and across the country do all kinds of programming in the summer," Mussman said. "We thought it would be amazing if, instead of focusing on just our summer program, we went a little bigger."

Staff from the Cedar Rapids Public Library and the Iowa City Public Library met first to discuss the campaign idea, she said, before each branched out to other libraries in their respective counties.

Participating libraries include those in North Liberty, Marion, Hiawatha and the University of Iowa Libraries System.

"It's in the early stages, but we're hoping it picks up over the summer," Mussman said. "One of the big goals is to shift focus away from all the negative things out there (on social media), and lighten everyone's spirits."

The #CorridorReads campaign also is promoting additional social media hashtags. On Mondays, it is encouraging social media users to share acts of kindness with the tag #Choose Kindness.

Agenda Item 5E-7

“There’s a lot of not-so-fun things out there. Some days it can be a lot,” Mussman said. “Think about social media as an opportunity to share about all the good things. ... All of a sudden maybe your Facebook feed is a little brighter that day.”
