- 703.1 The Library’s video stream shall be referred to as The Library Channel, and can be found at icpl.org/video. The purpose of The Library Channel is to extend library programs to a wider audience, to inform the community about Library services, to promote reading and Library use, to provide access to community events, to disseminate the visual history of the community-or local history; and to make meetings and events originating from the Library more accessible.
- 703.2 Community meetings and events originating from the Library may be streamed live on The Library Channel if it is determined to have broad community appeal and it can be accommodated without major disruption to Library staff schedules. Groups utilizing The Library Channel accept full legal responsibility for the content of their program, including compliance with copyright law.
- 703.3 The Library does not proscribe or cancel a recorded program solely because an individual or group may find the content objectionable.
- 703.4 The Library Board neither approves nor disapproves of content, topics, subject matter, or points-of-view of individuals or groups whose programs appear on The Library Channel.
- 703.5 All meetings or functions of the Library's Board of Trustees and its support groups have full access to The Library Channel as needed, and their use may include advocacy on behalf of the library.
- 703.6 Copyrighted materials and performances will be streamed in accordance with Board Policy 814.
- 703.7 Library programs may appear on The Library Channel, Library website, the internet, and other media.
- 703.8 This policy shall be administered by the Library Director or her/his designee, who is authorized to adopt rules to implement it.
