

RIDE & READ

RIDE THE BUS TO THE LIBRARY

Iowa City Transit buses stop at the downtown Iowa City interchange at the Old Capital Town Center (bus stop 0001), and it is a short three block walk to the Library.

RIDE & READ

An Iowa City Public Library Card is your ticket for two free rides on Iowa City Transit busses each week. Present your library card to any public service desk at the Library to receive your free pass. Limit: One pass per day, two passes per week.

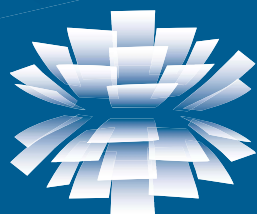

SUMMER LIBRARY BUS

An Iowa City Public Library card is your child's ticket to ride an Iowa City Transit bus free this summer. The Library will provide free bus rides to children through 12th grade, and the adult caregivers who are with them, on any Iowa City Transit bus route, from the day after Iowa City Schools dismiss until the day before school start, on weekdays between 9:00 am and 3:00 pm. Bus riders should show their Iowa City Public Library card to the bus driver to gain free access to the bus.

Children can catch a ride home anytime the same day with a Ride & Read bus pass, issued by showing a Library Card at any public service desk at the Library.
